

Needed: Artists- all ages- any experience-any media
What: Original artwork, any media
When: October 12-October 22
Why: Celebrate the Vail Leavitt Music Hall 136th Birthday through the artists' eyes

How: Interested artists are asked to submit an artwork photograph or scanned image to the Vail Leavitt Music Hall [VLMH] no later than October 1, 2017. The submission should include name, contact information, age, and artwork title [if any] Contact VLMH representative Carol Anthony at 631-503-0153 for more information. All submissions will be evaluated by a panel of local artists; winners notified by October 5th, followed by final delivery to the VLMH for set-up on October 6th.

Specification: Every submission must contain a visual element that references/documents an event, image, artifact or other historic Cultural reference from the VLMH 136 year history. The historic image should be part of a larger composition and integrated in such a way that it is hidden and yet invites discovery and engagement from the viewer. Historic subject matter can be found on the VLMH webpage: www.thevail.org/vail-history/.

Other information: There will be a exhibition opening reception on the evening of October 12, 2017, 5:00 pm-7:00 pm at the VLMH, 18 Peconic Avenue, Riverhead. The reception will include a "discovery session" with event goers attempting to "discover" the historical reference. Artists May provide hints, but not directly show the reference. Visitors will be charged with the task of finding the artwork's historical reference.
