

- NEEDED: Authors [all ages and experience]of original short stories, one-act plays, poems, personal essays and other creative writing
- WHEN: October 12-October 22, 2017
- WHY: Celebrate the 136th Birthday of the Vail Leavitt Music Hall through written word
- WHAT: Written works that align with the theme of the festival:
“Discovering the New in Things Old and Familiar”
- HOW: One piece per author/writer may be submitted
Written material must be capable of being read effectively in under 10 minutes.
E-mail [vlmusichall@gmail.com] an audio file [mp3 format preferred] with a 2-3 minute representative excerpt; include title and a brief synopsis/description
[if an audio file is not available, submit a typewritten excerpt of the piece, no more than 500 words]
Submit all works no later than September 29, 2017
A panel of writers/authors will evaluate each submission and those selected for the festival will be notified by October 6, 2017.
- All pieces selected will be presented orally by the author during the October festival.
- QUESTIONS: Call Carol Anthony at 631-503-0153

SHARE THIS ANNOUNCEMENT WITH OTHERS

THANK YOU

